PAULINE MARKHAM'S HAIR.—[N. Y. correspondence of St. Louis Republican.]—There is a rumor here that Pauline Markham, (of the Lydia Thompson troupe,) is about to be married to some gentleman of standing who is madly in love with her. Pauline is a gorgeous creature. Looking out of a dressmaker's back window the other day, I saw a neighbor's yard in a very strange condition. The grass was strewn with tufts and crimps of golden hair. Hanging on the lines were auriferous curls and golden switches waving in the air. Good mercy, thought I, there's been an awful confound among the blondes going on here. Even as I gazed, a young woman came out and seemed mournfully to regard the harrowing scene, but suddenly the voice of a man, who is a hair dresser on Sixth avenue, broke in, saying: "Bring in Miss Markham's hair," and sure enough, there stood the stately Pauline in the door. The hair-dresser's young man picked up the whole half bushel and ran in with it, where, in the strong light of the back window, Pauline bent her graceful head to have lock after lock, curl after curl, switched after switch, matched with the original Jacobs that grew on her temples—some of it took another dip in auroline, and came out in the yard again, some of it was a match to a hair, and went off with the golden Pauline.

Lots of people have gone again into the auroline. Mrs. Jordan, who was a brunette, became a year or so ago a golden-haired blonde, then resumed her dark hair and dyed it yellow. Now she is down at the Branch, her head again touched up, this time to a sort of a bronze color and there are a great many heads now seen of a peculiar reddish brown, known as auburn, but if one looks closely at the roots they see the hair is quite another color.

THE SUMMER RESIDENCE OF JAY COOKE.—Gibraltar is situated but one quarter of a mile from Put-in-Bay Island, Lake Erie. This romantic spot, which has recently been purchased by Jay Cooke, the banker, and upon which he has erected a handsome residence, contains about five acres, and rises some forty feet above the Lake—a lovely spot of earth, covered with natural forest trees. Put-in-Bay Island is situated in Lake Erie, about sixteen miles from Sandusky and sixty from Detroit. It derives its name from the fact that Commodore Perry put in here with his fleet in 1813, preparatory to engaging the enemy. This island is the loveliest of all the charming groups which dot the entrance to Sandusky Bay. It contains about 1,700 acres, is three miles long, and has about eight hundred inhabitants. There are two first-class hotels here, the Put-in-Bay and the Beebe House, each accommodating from 600 to 800 comfortably. Near by is a fine beach for bathing, and bath houses connected with the hotels for the convenience of those who may desire to take a plunge in the clear pure water of Lake Erie. There is a fine dock, at which steam and sailing yachts, fishing and row boats, are always in readiness to afford every facility for aquatic sports and amusements. There are no better fishing grounds in the world than among these islands, and fishermen from all sections resort here for sport. These islands are peculiarly attractive to the geologist and lover of nature, and afford the naturalist a wide field. Put-in-Bay Island is noted for its many and curious subterranean caverns, some of which are very large, with smooth floors, high walls, and clear, cool, miniature lakes, apparently designed by nature to refresh and please the weary visitor.

FIVE YEARS AGO Genevieve Brower, a beautiful girl from Maine, was arrested in New York on charges of conspiring with Edward Jenkins to rob the Phoenix Bank in that city. Jenkins was paying teller of the bank, and stole over one hundred thousand dollars. He confessed that he had given a large portion of the money to Genevieve, whom he habitually visited in Madame Bell's saloon, in Broadway, where she was employed as a waiter. He had furnished a house for her in Bleeker street, and was about to clothe with her when the officers of the bank discovered the defalcation and caused his arrest. Both prisoners were subsequently released. Two years after the occurrence Jenkins died in St. Luke's Hospital, and Miss Brower returned to the home of her mother in Portland, Maine. Her mother, however, was soon prostrated by sickness, and Genevieve was her only attendant. She cared for her night and day, and owing to the want of sleep and fatigue, she became stone blind. When her mother died Genevieve was led to the house of her sister, a married resident in Brooklyn, and some wealthy person sent her, at their own expense, to an up-town private asylum for the blind. She speaks kindly of Jenkins, but laments that he ever crossed her path.

A SPINNING WHEEL.—Some months ago the idea of presenting a spinning wheel to Mrs. Grant, wife of President Grant, similar to those manufactured by Mr. James McCreery for the Queen, Countess Spencer, Mrs. Gladstone, and others, was conceived, and Dr. Rea, American Consul, Belfast, was applied to by the Secretary of the Belfast Linen Trade Committee to know if Mrs. Grant would be willing to receive it as a specimen of a machine which was formerly much used as an instrument of domestic industry, but which the progress of invention has rendered now of no practical use. Dr. Rea at once wrote Mrs. Grant, and shortly afterwards an official letter was received, of which the following is an extract: "I have now to say that your letter has been transmitted to Mrs. Grant, and I have been requested to say that she feels herself much honored by the request which has been made through the Belfast Linen Trade Committee, and will take great pleasure in receiving through you this testimonial illustrative of the industry of Ireland." The wheel was at once taken in hand by Mr. McCreery, and was on yesterday formerly handed over to Dr. Rea for transmission to Mrs. Grant.

In Albany liquor seller, on the 28th ult., received a formal notification from the proper law officer, acting under a statute passed by the New York Legislature, which reads:—"On complaint and satisfactory proof by the wife of Matthew Farrell that he is a habitual drinker of intoxicating liquors, you are hereby notified and forbidden to sell or give any liquor to him for the term of six months from the date of this notice, under the penalty of fifty dollars, with costs, for each and every sale or giving such liquor to him after this notice shall have been given to you."

DRUGS AND CHEMICALS.

SIMMONS' LIVER
The symptoms of Liver Complaint are uneasiness and pain in the side. Sometimes the pain is in the shoulder, and is mistaken for rheumatism. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness, bowels in general constipated, sometimes alternating with laxity. The head is troubled with pain, and full, heavy sensation, considerable loss of memory, accompanied with painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. Often complaining of weakness, debility and low spirits. Sometimes many of the above symptoms attend the disease, and at other times very few of them; but the liver is generally the organ most involved. Cure the Liver with

DR. SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR.

THE FOLLOWING WILL BE READ WITH INTEREST:
Under date of April 26th, 1871, Dr. HENRY J. ROGERS, 68 Sharp street, Baltimore, an eminent physician, writes regarding

CRYSTAL DISCOVERY:
"It affords me much pleasure to bear testimony as to the efficacy of your Crystal Discovery. Some years since, while in India, I suffered from a severe fever peculiar to the country. On my recovering, a patch of hair on the left side of my head became perfectly white, without at all affecting the remainder. To remove this unsightly appearance, I had recourse to various preparations, both in Europe and in this country; but they all had one great defect—they dyed the hair black. Now, with your Crystal Discovery, I can get the desired shade—the natural color of my hair being dark brown. I consider your Crystal Discovery the best preparation I know of."
Yours truly,
HENRY J. ROGERS.

Now as the fact becomes more potent every day that the various dirty and filthy preparations advertised as Renewers, Restoratives, &c., are but compounds of Sugar of Lead and Sulphur, and therefore should be shunned by all who value their health, it is scarcely a matter of surprise that the demand for NATTANS' CRYSTAL DISCOVERY, admitted to be perfectly harmless, and yet accomplish all, and more, than the poisonous articles claim to do, should have increased so rapidly. It restores the color and growth of the hair positively in a few days; strengthens the roots, makes an excellent dressing, soiling neither clothes nor scalp; but on the contrary it gives the scalp a pure and cleanly look, removing all dandruff and scurf. It is the most economical preparation in use. Put up in large bottles, at one dollar.

MEDICAL.

Baltimore Lock Hospital.
DR. JOHNSTON.
Physician of this celebrated institution, has discovered the most Certain, Speedy, Pleasant and Effective Remedy in the world for all DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.

Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Strictures, Affection of the Kidneys or Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Languor, Low Spirit, Confusion of Ideas, Trembling of the Heart, Trembling, Palpitation of the Heart, or Giddiness, Dizziness of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those terrible Disorders arising from Solitary Habits of Youth—secret and untimely practices more fatal to their victims than the songs of the Sirens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, &c.

YOUNG MEN.
Especially, who have become the Victims of Solitary Vice, and dreadful and destructive habits which annually sweep to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunder of eloquence, or walked to ecstasy the living lyres, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE.
Married persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, aware of Physical Weakness (Loss of Procreative Power—Impotency), Nervous Excitability, Palpitation, Organic Weakness, Nervous Debility, or any other Disqualification speedily relieved.
He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. Johnston, can confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS.
Immediately cured and Full Vigor Restored. This distressing Affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgence. Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the nature of the subject will pretend to deny that the natural powers are lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions weakened, Loss of Pro
